SECTION 41 OF INSURANCE ACT, 1938

PROHIBITION OF REBATES

Payment of rebates is expressly prohibited under Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938.

1. No person shall allow or offer to allow either directly or indirectly as an inducement to any person to take or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectus or tables of the Insurer. Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission in connection with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to be acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of this sub-section if at the time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bona fide insurance agent employed by the insurer.
2. Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be liable for a penalty which may extend to ten Lakh rupees."
